

LANCE BASS BIO

Lance Bass is the ultimate multi-hyphenate: Singer-Actor-Producer-Writer-Entrepreneur-Philanthropist. Best known as a member of the phenomenally successful pop group, *NSYNC, he has also made a name for himself in a variety of other endeavors. He executive produced and starred in the Miramax film, On the Line, which received the coveted Movieguide award for excellence in family-oriented programming. He received the Golden Apple Award as Male Film Discovery of 2001. In addition, Lance has made guest appearances in the film Zoolander and the television shows 7th Heaven, The Simpsons, Star Search, Clueless, Sabrina the Teenage Witch, NBC's hit series America's Most Talented Kid, and co-host for the American Music Awards' Red Carpet Party, as well as voice-over work for Disney.

Lance continues to flex his producing muscles with his production company, Lance Bass Productions. He recently executive produced Randal Kleiser's romantic comedy, Lovewrecked, starring Amanda Bynes, Chris Carmack, Jamie-Lynn Sigler, and Jonathan Bennett.

Lance has sold some 25 million records worldwide as a member of *NSYNC. The group holds the all time record for most album sales in a single day (over 1 million) and in a single week (2.4 million) for its 2000 album, No Strings Attached, which ultimately became a rare "Diamond" album with over 10 million records sold. The band's first album, *NSYNC also reached "Diamond" status, and Celebrity and Home for Christmas both went multi-platinum. He also won a number of awards, including People's Choice, American Music Awards, MTV Video Awards, Kids' Choice Award, and a host of Grammy nominations. The group's several worldwide tours have been among the highest grossing and most well attended in history and have played well on HBO and IMAX screens.

In 2002, Lance focused on his quest to travel to space and the International Space Station. He successfully trained to be a cosmonaut at Russia's Star City and was certified by both the Russian Space Program and NASA for a mission aboard a Soyuz capsule. He is currently the National Youth Spokesperson for World Space Week – a program specifically designed to excite and educate students about space and space travel.

Lance was inducted into the MS Musicians Hall of Fame, making him the youngest person to ever receive this honor. He remains active in various charitable organizations, most particularly The Lance Bass Foundation, created to meet the health and educational needs of children.

He is currently promoting his memoir, Out of Sync, for Simon Spotlight Entertainment.
