

MARK LUNDHOLM
Biography

Funnyman Mark Lundholm is a professional mistake maker. His resume includes positions such as convicted felon, street addict, closet wino, former mental patient, catholic altar boy, divorced father of two and roofer. Mark knows about pain and gain.

Since 1988 he has performed in 49 states and 5 foreign countries. From the Improv Comedy Clubs, to the White House, to the Betty Ford Center, to San Quentin State Prison. Mark Lundholm has been invited to address audiences of "the best and the rest" as he puts it.

He has written comedy material for TV pilots and nationally known celebrities. He is working on an autobiography entitled "From Cocaine to Rogaine...Life is a Dope Deal." He has three one-man shows under his belt and is currently developing a theater show entitled "'How Is That funny?"

Mark's stand-up set is a brutally beautiful blend of childlike simplicity, cutting edge Carlin-like wit, and deep, dark moments of intense humanity and honest emotion. This man is seriously funny!
